Specialist Accreditation 2025 Family Law Case List

Topics for Assessment

Candidates will be expected to display a high standard of knowledge regarding:

- a. The Family Law Act 1975 (Cth), The Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia Act 2021, The Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Family Law) rules 2021, the Child Support (Assessment) Act 1989 (Cth), the Child Support (registration and collection) Act 1988, the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Division 2) Rules 2021, The Central Practice Direction, and other Practice Directions together with other relevant legislation and case law;
- b. The core knowledge areas set out in schedule 4 of the Assessment Requirements; and
- c. State Legislation relating to domestic violence, children and child protection, medical procedures and professional responsibilities, and the intersection between state and federal legislation.

The contents of schedule 4 (updated November 2024) should not be taken as exhaustive. It is aimed at assisting candidates in their preparation for Specialist Accreditation.

Candidates will be assessed on the law as it stands on the date of assessment. It will be presumed that Candidates will have kept abreast of any proposed legislative or practice changes that may have come into effect prior to the due date of the first item of assessment.

Candidates will be expected to:

- a) Address complex issues that might arise in any of the core knowledge areas;
- b) Identify relevant issues and problems from the fact scenarios provided;
- c) Provide practical, clear and accurate advice;
- d) Draft documents in accordance with relevant procedural rules and Practise Directions and principles; and
- e) Demonstrate adherence to the ethical and professional “best practice” of family law.

Note:

- The cases and sections of legislation are provided by way of guideline assistance only. In the event that any new legislative reforms become effective before the date of assessment or new cases delivered, practitioners will be required to be aware of the changes to the law resulting from that legislation or those cases.
- Parts, divisions, sections, orders and rules, if cited without legislative reference, are parts, divisions, sections, orders or rules of the Family Law Act 1975 (Cth), or The Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Family Law) Rules 2021, unless otherwise stated.
